Art Basel | Year 48

This book presents more than 700 pages of images and texts about the galleries, cultural events, and people that came together to create our 2017 Hong Kong, Basel, and Miami Beach shows. The publication is available for sale at the show venue or online.

The Art Market 2018

Art Basel and UBS present The Art Market, an annual global art market analysis authored by Dr. Claire McAndrew of Arts Economics. The Art Market covers all aspects of the international market and highlights the most important developments in the previous year. The publication is available for free PDF at artbasel.com/themarket.
