Audemars Piguet | Participatory Installation

Audemars Piguet presents Tomás Saraceno for Aerocene, an atmospherically-attuned installation on the oceanfront featuring solar reflective umbrellas, floating sculptures, and daily aerosolar performances, asking how it would feel to breathe after the fossil fuel era.

Location: Oceanfront, Miami Beach between 21st and 22nd streets, Miami Beach

Guided experiences for groups can be scheduled in advance

A guide will host VIP groups in conversational, welcoming exploration of the immersive and participatory installation. They will ensure a deeper understanding of the exhibition.

Wednesday Dec 5 & Thursday, Dec 6 – 12pm to 5pm

Friday Dec 7 – Sunday Dec 9, 10am – 5pm

*To register for a guided experience:
