Conversations and Salon: Art Basel's 2015 program of talks in Miami Beach

Art Basel's Conversations and Salon series in Miami Beach will once again bring together prominent members from across the international art world, including leading artists, gallerists, art historians, curators, museum directors, critics, and collectors to discuss a diverse range of topics. The 23 talks will feature an international line up of panelists, including curators and museum directors Iliana Cepero Amador, Stéphane Aquin, Nicholas Baume, David Gryn, Jens Hoffmann, Omar Kholeif, Hans Ulrich Obrist, Sir Norman Rosenthal, Beatrix Ruf and Philippe Vergne, as well as artists Sanford Biggers, Michael Craig-Martin, Rosalyn Drexler, Nicole Eisenman, Pedro Friedeberg, Carlos Garaicoa, Beatriz González, Shilpa Gupta, Jenny Holzer, Alex Israel, Paulo Nazareth, Tony Oursler, Trevor Paglen, Ishmael Randall-Weeks, Stephen Shore, Shahzia Sikander, Valeska Soares, Hank Willis Thomas and Samson Young.

Art Basel in Miami Beach's Conversations series will open on Thursday morning with the Premiere Artist Talk, featuring artists Trevor Paglen and Jenny Holzer. Paglen, who is known for layered explorations of contemporary themes of surveillance and covert governmental or corporate activity, and Holzer, who utilizes the rhetoric of modern information systems to address the politics of discourse, will consider questions of perception, language, and control.

On Friday, for the latest installment of his ongoing series on the diversity of artistic practice, Hans Ulrich Obrist, Co-director, Serpentine Gallery, London, will lead a panel considering 'The Artist as Slow Traveler'. The talk will consider several artists whose practices relate to travel and mobility, including Shilpa Gupta, Paulo Nazareth, Stephen Shore, Shahzia Sikander, and Samson Young.

Conversations will continue on Saturday with a panel from Art Basel's Public/Private series, entitled 'Should Art Schools Prepare Artists for the Art World?' Moderated by author and cultural consultant András Szántó, the discussion will consider the role of an art school education in today's highly professionalized art world, by bringing together Sanford Biggers, Artist and Associate Professor of Visual Arts, Columbia University, New York; Nicolas Bourriaud, Curator and Art Critic, Paris; Howard Singerman, Phyllis and Joseph Caroff Chair of Art and Art History, Hunter College, City University of New York, and Rosanne Somerson, President, Rhode Island School of Design, Providence.

The series closes on Sunday with a conversation between artist Nicole Eisenman, winner of a 2015 MacArthur 'Genius Grant', and her gallerist Susanne Vielmetter, Owner and Director of Susanne Vielmetter Los Angeles Projects, on the special relationship between the artist and her gallerist.

Highlights of the afternoon Salon program, an open platform for short presentations, will include 'New Role for Art in Cuba', featuring Stéphane Aquin, Chief Curator, Hirshhorn Museum and Sculpture Garden, Washington and the artist Carlos Garaicoa, moderated by Iliana Cepero Amador, Art Historian, Curator and Adjunct Professor, The New School and New York University. Continuing the discourse about art scenes in South America, the Mexican artist Pedro Friedeberg will be in conversation with the Colombian artist Beatriz González.

On Friday, artist Rosalyn Drexler will take part in a dialogue with Katy Siegel, Thaw Professor, Stony Brook University, New York.

On Saturday, Salon continues with a discussion on sound works featuring the artists Mariele Neudecker, Camille Norment, Sophie Alsbo, and Alice Jacobs, and led by David Gryn, Curator of Art Basel's Film sector and Founder of Daata Editions and Artprojx, London. Moderated by Andrew Goldstein, Chief Digital Content Officer, Phaidon/Artspace, New York, the Chairman of Richard L. Feigen & Co., Richard L. Feigen, and the Owner of JTT, New York, Jasmin T. Tsou, will consider 'The New Old Masters'.

Also of note will be 'Transgender goes Mainstream' with David J. Getsy, Goldabelle McComb Finn Distinguished Professor of Art History, Interim Dean of Graduate Studies, The School of the Art Institute of Chicago; the artist Gordon Hall; and Kimberly Drew, Founder, Black Contemporary Art, New York, moderated by William J. Simmons, Ph.D. Student, Art History and Women's Studies, CUNY Graduate Center, New York.

Omar Kholeif, Manilow Senior Curator, Museum of Contemporary Art Chicago; Maryam Eisler, Co-chair, Middle East Acquisitions Committee, Tate, London; Yasser Akkaoui, Editor-in-chief, Executive Magazine, Beirut; and writer and Art Critic Arie Amaya-Akkermans, will discuss 'Collecting as a Political Act'. Sarah Douglas, Editor-In-Chief, ARTnews Magazine, will moderate 'The Ethics of Art Advising' with Wendy Cromwell, Independent Art Advisor, Founder Cromwell Art LLC, New York; Jo Backer Laird, Patterson Belknap Webb & Tyler, New York; Jill Kraus, Art Collector, New York and Mary Sabbatino, Vice President and Partner, Galerie Lelong, New York.

As part of the Salon talks Nicholas Baume, Curator of Art Basel's Public sector and Director and Chief Curator of Public Art Fund, New York, will speak with artists Ishmael Randall-Weeks, Hank Willis Thomas and Xavier Cha. Philippe Vergne, Director, The Museum of Contemporary Art, Los Angeles; Daniel McClean, Head of Art and Cultural Property Law, Howard Kennedy LLP, London; and artist Matt Johnson consider the phenomenon of artists donations in a panel moderated by Roland J. Augustine, Partner, Luhring Augustine Gallery, New York. Artist Tony Oursler, Beatrix Ruf, Director, Stedelijk Museum Amsterdam and Tom Eccles, Executive Director, Center for Curatorial Studies, Bard College, New York to discuss the contemporary role of the archive. The evolution of Los Angeles' art scene will be at the heart of a conversation between artist Alex Israel and the author Bret Easton Ellis, moderated by Hans Ulrich Obrist.

The Salon program will then end on Sunday with 'What-Profit: Hybrid Art Spaces', featuring Stefan Benchoam, Artist and exhibition maker, Co-Founder and co-director of NuMu and Proyectos Ultravioleta, Guatemala City; Gabriela Saenz, General Director, TEOR/ética, San José, Costa Rica; Prem Krishnamurthy, Designer and Curator, Founder of Project Projects and P!, New York; and Chris Sharp, Writer, independent curator, and Co-Founder of Lulu, Mexico City, moderated by Mari Spirito, Founding Director of Protocinema, Istanbul/New York.

Saturday, December 5, 2015 | Public/Private | Should Art Schools Prepare Artists for the Art World?

Nicolas Bourriaud, Independent Curator and Art Critic, Paris; Howard Singerman, Phyllis and Joseph Caroff Chair of Art and Art History, Hunter College, City University of New York, New York; Rosanne Somerson, President, Rhode Island School of Design, Providence, RI, USA; Sanford Biggers, Artist and Associate Professor of Visual Arts, Columbia University, New York

Moderator: András Szántó, Author and Cultural Consultant, New York

In today's highly professionalized art world, an art school education is almost indispensable for an artist seeking to launch a significant career. Yet the role and impact of art schools have been widely debated. As artists are confronted by an enormous, international system of institutions and art commerce, questions remain: Do art schools adequately prepare artists for functioning in the art world? Should they?

Sunday, December 6, 2015 | Artist Talk | The Artist and the Gallerist

Nicole Eisenman, Artist, New York, in conversation with Susanne Vielmetter, Owner and Director, Susanne Vielmetter Los Angeles Projects, Los Angeles

This panel offers a frank and informal conversation about the unique and fundamental relationship between artists and their galleries. NOTES TO EDITORS

About Art Basel

Art Basel stages the world's premier art shows for Modern and contemporary works, sited in Basel, Miami Beach and Hong Kong. Defined by its host city and region, each show is unique, which is reflected in its participating galleries, artworks presented, and the content of parallel programming produced in collaboration with local institutions for each edition. In addition to ambitious stands featuring leading galleries from around the world, each show's exhibition sectors spotlight the latest developments in the visual arts, offering visitors new ideas, new inspiration and new contacts in the art world.

Partners

UBS, global Lead Partner of Art Basel, has supported the organization for more than 20 years. As Art Basel's global network has expanded, so too has UBS's commitment and lead partnership, which includes all three shows in Basel, Miami Beach and Hong Kong. In addition to its support of Art Basel, UBS has a long and substantial record of engagement in contemporary art: as a holder of one of the world's most distinguished corporate art collections, as an active partner in global contemporary art projects such as the Guggenheim UBS MAP Global Art Initiative, and as a source of information and insights through the UBS Art Competence Center, UBS Arts Forum and its new contemporary art news-focused app, 'Planet Art'.

Associate Partners Davidoff, the prestigious Swiss cigar brand, Audemars Piguet, the independent high-end watch manufacturer, and NetJets, the world leader in private aviation, support Art Basel across its three shows. Art Basel's Media Partners are The Financial Times and the Miami Herald, and the VIP car service at the show is by BMW. Long-standing partner AXA ART, the international art insurance specialist, provides VIP guided tours at all shows. For further information on Art Basel's partners, please visit artbasel.com/partners.
